

I am against further media consolidation. The pendulum is swinging too far away from serving the public interest. I am skeptical about the willingness of your chairman to listen to the public and/or be truthfully concerned about its interest. Please, at the very least, retain current media ownership rules at your June 2nd meeting.